

Daughter-in-Law Waltz

Waltz for Jennifer and Matt

Dave Brinkman

November 24, 1999

Laramie, Wyoming

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb) and a 3/4 time signature. It consists of eight staves of music. The first staff begins with a Bb chord. The second staff has an Eb chord. The third staff includes Ebmin, Bb, and G7 chords. The fourth staff includes Cmin, F, and Bb chords. The fifth staff features Bb, Cmin, Dmin, and Gmin chords, with triplets of eighth notes. The sixth staff includes Eb, Bb, and F chords. The seventh staff includes Bb, Cmin, Dmin, and Gmin chords, with triplets of eighth notes. The eighth staff includes Eb, F, and Bb chords. The score concludes with a double bar line.

Jennifer, my daughter-in-law, asked me more than once when I was going to write the Daughter-in-Law Waltz. In 1999, she and Matt visited in Laramie for Thanksgiving, and having them here was inspiration for the tune.
